MUCH UNHAPPINESS AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY-A DEAD HEAT BETWEEN BANQUET AND

RAMAPO-BANQUET WON

It was a most generous support which the race goers extended to the meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club yesterday, as on many previous days, The attendance ran far up in the thousands, but most of these thousands went home in a disc tented and dissatisfied frame of mind. This discon-tent and dissatisfaction came in large part from the action of the stewards on Friday in suspending Taral, the most popular jackey in America, from riding until the Fourth of July. This is generally looked upon as an error, and on injustice. Few people think that Taral did really misconduct himself in such a way at the post in the Pansy Stakes on Commoner on Friday that he deserved so severe Taral should be severely punished. It seemed to most of the spectators that Taral had really done The Commoner, who was an overwhelming favorite

The Eastern stewards appear to be always ex tremely anxious to comply with Mr. Howe's slightest wish. They are not at all like the Western stew ards, who fined their starter $100 for a missie; and more popular and more satisfactory style in the West than in the East in many ways. The Western officials are much more vigilant than the Eastern officials, and they know their business much more thoroughly. They watch the owners trainers, jockeys and horses far more closely and ards' stands in the East the stately dignity of some of the augest officials is often as majestic and overpowering as that of the United States Senate. frauds, abuses and evils, is usually a dismol and ne of the Eastern racetracks are sometimes fal stewards do not always observe the rathe records of owners, trainers, jockeys and horse with sufficient energy and exhaustiveness. They ought to have a force of paid experts to look into all these things, and to get at the exact truths which lie hidden at the bottom of so many turf

These punishments ought to be applied

on Friday Ta;al would certainly have ridden Weltzer and Ramapo in the second and lifth races yesterday. With Taral on his back Ramapo would, beyond question, have won the fifth race by an ample margin, and the extremely unpleasant and unfortunate affair which occurred in that race caps Taral kept Ramapo in a good place, near the leaders, from start to finish. That is the proper leaders, from start to finish. That is the proper way in which Ramapo ought to be ridden as Jamals brilliant victories proved clearly. But Garrish School 10 (1994) 1 way in which Ramapo ought to be ridden, as Taral's brilliant victories proved clearly. But Garri-their money fairly and honestly, but were unfortunately deprived of it by the lamentable error of the judges.

Garrison, after the race, promptly claimed a foul against Sims. While Garrison was in the stand making his claim, a crowd gathered. There was only one opinion in the crowd, and that was that Garrison was wasting his time, and that the stewards would never dream of disqualitying Michael F. Dwyer's horse and Michael F. Dwyer's jockey for a foul, Mr. Dwyer is a magnate and a potentate in the turf, and racing officials tremble at his nod. The Coney Island Jockey Club was filled with awe recently when the Dwyers and the Morrisos threatened to give races at Morris Park on the Pourth of July in opposition to Sheepshead Bay, and meekly submitted to the Dwyer-Morris terms. The Dwyers appear to be able to scare any one into their way of thinking on the turf in these days. But it may not be so a ways.

The stewards sent for Sims and asked him some questions. They also made some inquiries of Colonel Simmons and other racing officials. But no intelligent person on the track expected them to offend Michael F. Dwyer by setting back his horse for a foul, and they didn't. They refused to allow the claim of foul.

At first it was thought that the money would be divided, and there would be no run-off. But Ramano was almost the owner of Ramano, preferred a division of the money, but Mr. Dwyer was determined to have a run-off. In the betting before the race, and Michael F. Dwyer insisted upon a run-off. But Ramano of the money, but Mr. Dwyer was determined to have a run-off. In the betting before the race, and Michael F. Dwyer insisted upon a run-off. But Ramano was always the favorite, with Banquet a strong second choice. For a long time before the race in the bookmakers offered only even money and some of them only 8 to 19 and 4 to 5 against Ramapo, and only 7 to 5 against Banquet.

For the run-off, which took place twenty minutes after the race, the octting was 9 to 10 against each horse. They went off at a canter, and the pace was stotesquely slow up to the final half-mile. Then Sims sent Banquet along rapidity, and Gartison could never eatch him with Ramapo. But Ramapo got so close to Banquet at the furiant post in the homestretch that Sims used the whip freely on Banquet. Under the lash he drew away and won easily by a length.

The whole affair caused the widest excitement and the most interpass off for many a day and most success of the stand at every racetrack in America boid, brave, courageous officials, who will set back Michael F. Dwyer's horses as quickly for fouling as they would set back the horses of the poorest, most obscure and most instendicant owner on the turf.

If all the newspapers of New-York, morning and evening, would tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and if all of them would publish the same frank free, earnest, emphatic, sincere and brilliant criticisms of turf abuses which many of them present to their readers or afficial, illerary and dramatic topics, the racing associations of the East would specify be compelled to make most extensive and redical reforms and improvements. A few of the papers are plain and outspoken in regard to turf abuses new and then. But the ranger of heart would specify be compelled to make most extensive and redical reforms and improvements. A few of the papers are plain and outspoken in regard to turf abuses new and then. But the ranger associations absolutely control the turf of that paper resularly as a racing official, and they appear to have tremendous. ABOUT THE LAWN AND PADDOCK. TALK AMONG THE TURPMEN INCIDENTS OF THE EALF-HOLIDAY.

Many shrewd men who know the ropes and the fall on the Coney Island Jockey Club. Yesterday's CLARA DAUER, AT 20 TO 1, TAKES THE QUIEN racing will long be remembered by race-goers. The fourths of a mile, and if the pace was slow to place his horse in the third position and keep chim in the run-off, even if I ain ruled of the fames R. Keene, however, prevailed on Garrison reconsider his words, and gave him some good vice, so that by the time Air. Gideon returned, are had been restored, and Rampo, although the lame, was ready to try conclusions with Hancet in the run-off. By this time a large crowd assembled in the paddock, and everybedy on track was more or less excited. Instructions to defeated his lame opponent caskly.

In the control of t on Stonenell, but Correction held him safe from flagfall to finish.

The farce-councily, or steeplechase, rattled every body on the track. Before the first circuit of the course was made the contestants in the race were running in every conceivable direction in the field so that it was difficult for anyhody to decide whereas and an unparalleled exhibition of crueity of the part of one jockey, who heat and helabored on of the contestants over the heat with the built of his white until persons in the ciuthouse stand cries. "Shame." the farce came to an end. There was a long delay before a decision was rendered. Frederick Gebhard's Rodman was the first past the finishing past. To the surprise of many persons who firmly believe that the winner covered identically the same course that was covered by Rodman, the latter was disqualified for going the wrong course. Lynch, who was the rider of Rodman, is an old and experience steeplechase bockey, so that there is no excuse for him and his blunder. Frederick Gebhard is a truportisman and should be protected by the racins officials.

An effort is being made to have the decision in the sportsman and should be protected by the racin officials. An effort is being made to have the decision in the steedechases and hurtle races f rivelight hours after the race, so as to accommodate the persons whe wait putil dark for the result.

QUEEN VICTORIA SELLS SOME HORSES. London, June 20.—At the auction sale of the Queen's stud at Hampton Court to-day twenty-eight yearlings brought 5,322 and forty-five broodmares and foals were sold for 118,934. Baron de Hirsch paid 54,839 for the mare Wedlock.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST RACETRACKS. Chicago, June 28.-The Grand Jury to-day re-Chicago, June 20.—The Grand Jury to-day returned indictments against the Hawthorne people for keeping a common gaming place and the Washington Park Club for maintaining a nuisance. There is no statute on which the Washington Park Club indictment can be based, but the Jury, in looking up the law, found that boiling tripe or skinning fish were indictable offences if these operations were attended by unpleasant odors, and reasoned that the smell from the stables must be unpleasant, and the indictment was issued.

A TROTTING MATCH AT POUGHKEEPSIE. Poughkeepsle, N. Y., June 30.-A match race was trotted here to-day between the gelding Wax, entered and driven by J. P. Gibbs, of Fleetwood Park, and Baby, owned by James McClanahan, of

THE MIRAGE OF THE SOUL Prostration Before the Dark Ido "THE DEVIL'S MANNA."

"God's best gift to man" is the favorite name of opium, of the poor, worn nomad of the desert. The dreamy, blissful languor, the ecstasies of pleasure, the serene and rapturous delight of the victims of the morphine habit, during the earlier stages of their disease. phine natit, during the earlier stages of their disease and while they were on the confines of the Optum In-ferno, has been given to the world in the most graphic and vivid terms. The subject has been treated of by a master whose genius has enwrapped it in the most gor-geous robing of balancel sentences and resounding periods, making the story of the famous opium user a classic in English literature.

The story of the awakening of the mild-eyed melancholy

lotes eaters is told daily by the pole thin victims of the polson as they pass silently along to secure a fresh sup-ply of the opiate, upon which their very lives depend. When at last the Satanic spirit which dwells in the 'drug' has revealed its power and asserted its imperi-ous mastership, the time for manly revolt has passed and the hour of terror-stricken awakening has arrived. Deprive him of his "drug" and a thousand shrieking form. The agony caused by nerves and brain, awakening from their enforced torsor, fill body and mind with horfrom their suits. The confirmed user of any form of option hears within binnelf a ceaseless undertone of despair.
